

meet Kathy

Whether it's businesses looking to expand, members who want to ease their financial burden, or those who want to make a purchase today, Kathy Wilkins works as part of a team that is committed to helping members achieve financial success in all their aspects of life.

Kathy has been helping individuals make wise borrowing decisions since 1999 and has been helping Shaunavon Credit Union members since joining our team in 2007.

Kathy works with each member to understand their full financial picture so they can make educated decisions about their financial future.

As a Lending Service Representative she works with members to help them achieve their goals.
