

meet Terry

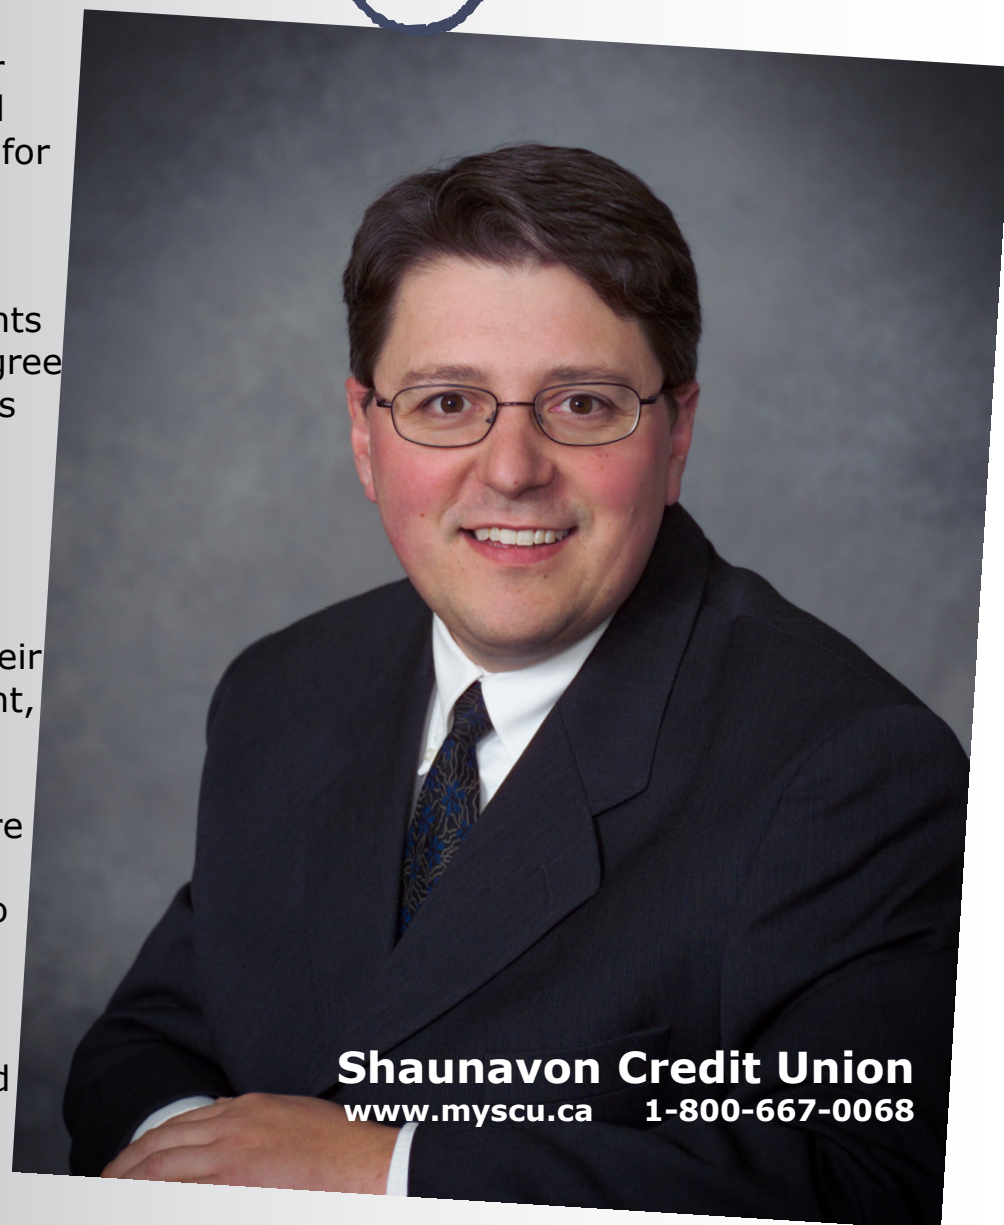

Terry Shields has been a Certified Financial Planner with Shaunavon Credit Union for over 10 years and has been working in the financial services industry for over 15 years to help people achieve their financial goals.

Terry is committed to providing services to his clients professionally. He has a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Saskatchewan and completes over 30 hours of continuing education credits each year to enhance his knowledge and skills and effectively provide service to his clients.

Terry works with clients in all their stages of life – young couples starting out, parents planning for their children's education, those planning their retirement, producers transitioning the family farm to their children, and seniors working to maximize their retirement income. He helps clients to look at where they are at financially today, envision where they want to be in the future and to implement a plan to get them there.

Terry is proud to offer quality professional financial planning advice to clients in Shaunavon and around the South West.
